DEFRAUDATED THE GOVERNMENT.
New York Real Estate Dealer Charged With Restoring Was Revenue Stamps.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Freeman Strait, the well-known real estate dealer and insurance agent, with an office on lower Broadway, has been arrested, charged with defrauding the government by selling war revenue stamps chemically restored after cancellation. It is stated by treasury special agents that Strait and his associates have cheated the government out of $100,000. Strait, they say, has been clearing $2,000 a week.

At his home were found a large number of stamps in various stages of restoration, also the chemicals used in the process.

COUNTERFEITERS ON TRIAL.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—Interest in the celebrated revenue stamp counterfeiting conspiracy, unearthed about six months ago by the United States secret service and which resulted in the arrest of eight men, one government employe, and two formerly in the
